OF ORANGE COUNTY

HERITAGE MUSEUM IN SANTA ANA BECOMES A JURASSIC WONDERLAND WITH FOSSILS NATIVE TO ORANGE COUNTY ON SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 11 A.M.

Heritage Museum of Orange County brings history to life at the 10th Annual "From Dinosaurs to People" Event.

SANTA ANA, CALIF. –This one-day only family and pet friendly community event will explore Orange County’s rich heritage of local cultural and natural history, including prehistoric animals and plants and their natural habitats found right here in OC.

Guests of all ages will enjoy From Dinosaurs to People with activities including: roaming dinosaur characters and stationed photo ops, cultural demonstrations, live critters, archaeological and paleontological demonstrations and exhibits, living history demonstrations, tortoise meet and greets, reptile exhibits, walks through our very own Gospel Swamp Farm and Natural Area, and “panning” for gold. Enjoy additional activity booths sponsored by the Orange County Blacksmith Guild, Cooper Center with OC Parks, Jurassic Lab, Macaroni Kid Santa Ana, California Cultural Resources Preservation Alliance, local historical societies and more!

Kids under 14 are FREE and adults are only $5! The event is open to the public with free parking! Come hungry because many local Orange County food trucks are joining the party! El Taquero Guzman, El Chucky, Kona Ice, La Mamalona Birria, Beautiful Poisons, Tap Truck OC and more will be selling food, snow cones, desserts and beverages at the event!
